

mayor or by any court within the county or counties within which the corporation is situated, under the same regulations and penalties as are prescribed by law in the case of constables, and to enforce the ordinances of the corporation as the board may direct; and the said marshal or marshals are hereby authorized and empowered to arrest all offenders against any of the ordinances of the said corporation committed in his or their presence without warrant.

Tax collector and treasurer.

SEC. 24. The board of commissioners may appoint a tax collector and treasurer and fix their bonds, payable to the corporation, for the faithful performance of their duties and for a true accounting and return of all moneys collected or paid into the treasury of the corporation at such time or times as are required by the board of commissioners of said corporation or the executive committee; and it may appoint any other committee or officers that may be necessary, and prescribe their duties and powers.

Other committees or officers.

Powers of tax collector.

SEC. 25. The tax collector shall have the same power to collect taxes imposed by the board of commissioners of this corporation as the tax collector of the town of Waynesville possesses. This corporation shall have the same powers to sell property for failure to pay taxes as is vested in the town of Waynesville, North Carolina, and proceedings of sales shall be the same.

Sales for taxes.

Members not liable for debts of corporation.

SEC. 26. The members of this corporation shall not be personally liable for the debts, contracts, obligations or torts of the corporation.

Corporate limits

SEC. 27. The corporate limits of this corporation shall be as follows: Beginning at a stake on the northerly side of Boundary Street, in the town of Waynesville, North Carolina, said stake being on the easterly side of Atkins Road (corner of W. T. Lee's property); thence with the easterly side of said Atkins Road to the line between Luther McClure and Will Tate; thence with said Tate's southerly line to Walnut Street, crossing said Walnut Street on same line; thence with southerly side of said Walnut Street to a point three hundred feet beyond Powell's Branch; thence parallel with and three hundred feet to the east of Powell's Branch to the Keller and Bridges line; thence with the Keller and Bridges and Ellis lines to a street or road; thence with the southerly side of said road or street, along S. H. Keller's line, to its intersection with the old county road leading to Howell's mill; thence with said old county road to James Underwood's easterly line; thence with said James Underwood's easterly line or lines to the line of Maggie Marshall and R. G. A. Love; thence with the easterly and northeasterly line or lines of said Maggie Marshall and R. G. A. Love to Richland Creek; thence with Richland Creek to Nelson Howell's north line; thence westward with said Nelson Howell's north line or lines, Turpin Moody's and Turpin's to the M. H. Love estate line, on a ridge; thence with said M. H. Love estate line (near top of ridge) to said Love's corner, at or near